

HI THERE!

I'm Luke (Mynus) a graphic designer based in Central Europe. I'm a versatile type, all-rounder, a quick learner, with a passion for delivering finest visual experience for the viewer. I care deeply about the quality of my work and as a designer I also know there's always a pixel that can be pushed closer to perfection, ... always ;)

QUALIFICATION!

Years of agency and freelancing experience based on a self-educated design basis, effectively transforming client's requirements into strategic brand concepts. For 4 years I was remotely supporting the UI/UX department and also the marketing team at Gooten, developing ideas and delivering outputs that did maintain or bolster brand reputation.

WORK COLLECTION!

Personal website comes with a few fine projects, and if you want to see more, let me navigate you to my Behance profile or you can occasionally take a sneak peek on my instagram profile and see small bits of work there as well.

SIDE PROJECTS!

I managed to launch a small personal project called Badgetterie - Art n Facts bakery, serving the finest illustrated badges straight outta oven. But it's in its early stages taking baby steps. ;)
